Detailed Itinerary for 2 Nights and 3 Days:

Day 1: Mysore Sightseeing

The first day of your trip starts with your arrival in Bangalore. We will pick you up from Bangalore airport or railway station and drive you to Mysore. After checking in at your pre-booked hotel, you will now visit the most famous tourist attractions in Mysore. Mysore Palace will overwhelm you with its royal grandeur and sprawling size. At night, the lighting at the palace is one of the highlights of Mysore. You will visit Brindavan Gardens. The musical fountain and light & sound show are famous in Mysore. Also, visit other Mysore attractions like St. Philomenas Cathedral and Mysore Zoo. In the evening, you can explore the local markets and do some shopping. Afterward, you will dine in your hotel restaurant or find a popular restaurant in Mysore. You can now rest for the night at the hotel.

Day 2: Coorg Sightseeing

On this day you will visit the famous Chamundi Hills in Mysore. The Chamundeshwari Temple is perched on top of the most famous hill in Mysore called Chamundi Hills. It is one of the famous temples in Mysore. You will now drive to Coorg, which is famous as the 'Scotland of India'. You can stop by on the route to visit the Kaveri Nisargadhama, which is full of greenery and natural beauty. You can see the Cauvery River here. When you arrive at Coorg, you can check in at your hotel and then head to visit the famous places in Coorg. Abbey Falls is one of the most picturesque waterfalls in Coorg. You will visit Omkareshwara Temple and Raja's Seat. Raja's Seat offers you magnificent views of the surrounding region from its elevated position.

Day 3: Dubare Elephant Camp

You can now check out from your hotel in Coorg and head to Dubare Elephant Camp. Here the naturalists and workers bathe and take care of the elephants. There are around 150 elephants here in this camp and they are trained for the Mysore Dussehra. You can bathe the elephants under the expert supervision of trained naturalists. You can also tour the jungle and spot some animals. River rafting, trekking, and fishing are other activities that you can enjoy doing at Dubare Elephant Camp. You will then leave the elephants behind and head to Bangalore. We will drop you at the Bangalore airport or railway station.
